

The Alliance for San Juan Art

Dedicated to

ART IN THE PUBLIC SQUARE

in
SAN JUAN CAPISTRANO

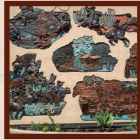

1 Los Rios District

2 The Clock in the Depot District

3 Old San Juan Mural

4 Mission San Juan Capistrano

5 The Mission Basilica

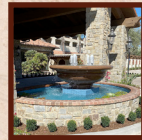

Map by Randall Holbrook Art & Design

6 Art at the Inn at the Mission

7 The Fountains at the Inn at the Mission

8 Tile Panels at Strosher Grove Melissa Thomson and Patricia Waterman

9 Clay Bas Relief Panels

10 "Earth, Fire, Water and the Potter" Arthur and Jean Ames

11 Serra Plaza Louisa Cooper

12 "Binding Contract" Beadford J. Williams

13 Untitled Tony Sheets

14 "Welcoming the Swallows" Unknown Artist

15 "Mormon Battalion Trek through San Juan Capistrano"

16 "The Journey of Jesus" Lance Jost

17 "The Mammuthus Columbi" Columbi

View the Catalog

1 | Los Rios - 31791 Los Rios - Cross the RR tracks at Trevor's at the Tracks. Turn right to the park.

2 | The Clock - 26701 Verdugo Street - The clock is located next to Trevor's at the Tracks.

3 | Old San Juan - 31761 Camino Capistrano - A new wall mural on Capistrano Plaza next to Hennessey's Tavern. The first visible artwork in San Juan commissioned by Dan Almqvist, created by Randy Morgan.

4 | Mission San Juan Capistrano - 26801 Ortega Hwy - Visitors cannot miss this icon in the heart of downtown.

5 | The Mission Basilica - 31520 Camino Capistrano - The church is usually open until 7:00 pm. The Retablo may be the most significant work of art in Orange County.

6 | Inn at the Mission - 31692 El Camino Real - Browse the lobby and see extensive commissioned original works by local artists. Note that guest floors are limited to hotel guests only.

7 | The Fountains at the Inn at the Mission - 31692 El Camino Real - These are scattered through the Inn courtyards. A visit to San Juan would not be complete without a visit to this beautiful hotel.

8 | Tile Panels at Stroscher Grove - 31692 El Camino Real - These panels are on the corner of a busy intersection at Del Obispo and Ortega Highway. The best way to access them is to turn left from the Inn and walk to the corner.

9 | Clay Relief Panels - Panels are not available for viewing.

10 | "Earth, Fire, Water and the Potter" - 31952 Camino Capistrano - Access to this large tile mural is via the Plaza entrance on Camino Capistrano and to the left after you enter the courtyard of the Plaza.

11 | Serra Plaza - 31910 Del Obispo - In the arcade there are 18 panels depicting the Journey of St. Serra. Best access is from the parking lot behind the Plaza, off Paseo Adelanto. Gates to the plaza close at 6:00 pm.

Note: the following are not easily walkable:

12 | "Binding Contract" - 32382 Del Obispo - A large sculpture on a hillside on the west side of the road.

13 | Large relief panel sculpture - 31738 Rancho Viejo Road - The address is for the Ortega Business Center. It is inside the business complex slightly NE of Bad to the Bone.

14 | "Welcoming the Swallows" - 27400 Calle Arroyo - It is located in the median of the entrance and can be seen from Calle Arroyo. Parking in the rear.

15 | "The Mormon Trek through San Juan" - 2973 Stallion Ridge Road - The mural is located in front of the Mormon Meeting House.

16 | "The Journey of Jesus" - 29251 Camino Capistrano - These 15 Stations of the Cross are on the grounds of the Saddleback Rancho Capistrano Church. Access is from the main road on a pathway west of the lake, and about 100 yards to the other side of the lake. An awesome walk!

17 | "The Mammuthus Colombi" - This gigantic sculpture is located inside the Capistrano Ridge office complex at 29122 Rancho Viejo Road.

MAP LOCATIONS

Jewel of San Juan Capistrano
by Toni Danchik
Order prints via QR Code

OUR SPONSORS

The Inn at the Mission
A Marriott Autograph Hotel

Historic Landmark, Chapel, Museum and Gardens

Mission San Juan Capistrano was permanently founded by Junipero Serra on November 1, 1776, as the seventh of 21 missions to be established in California by the Spanish.

Our mission is to glorify the historical elements in San Juan Capistrano by the establishment of an Arts program that features permanent and public Art in the Public Square.

Photo courtesy of Frank Ritenaur

Old San Juan

A new mural in the center of town
by Randy Morgan

This beautiful new mural demonstrates that San Juan Capistrano can be the place where art abounds and artists thrive. The success of our initiative depends completely on our patrons, who lend their names and financial support. Click on the code below to donate:

Donate

For more information visit our web site at tasja.org or call for info at 949 510-2817

"Friend" us on Facebook!

The Alliance for San Juan Art

Dedicated to

ART IN THE PUBLIC SQUARE

in

SAN JUAN CAPISTRANO

Photo by Steve Behmerwohld

Video Introduction