

Table of Contents - Volume 1

Preface	5
Acknowledgements	10
Chronology for Jennie V. Cannon	11
List of Carmel and Berkeley Artists with Biographies	13
Abbreviations and Selected Bibliography	19
Introduction	27
Chapter One – The Formative Years: Minnesota (1869-96)	32
Chapter Two –Western Frontiers: Birth of the Carmel Art Colony (1896-1909)	39
Chapter Three – Sanctuary: Berkeley’s First Art Colony (1906-11)	72
Chapter Four – Artist versus Wife: Europe, Tucson and Carmel (1910-13)	106
Chapter Five – The Turning Point: William Merritt Chase and Carmel (1914)	132
Chapter Six – From Palo Alto to Berkeley: Divorce and Recovery (1915-23)	156
Chapter Seven – Carmel’s New Identity: the Peninsula’s Art Colony (1915-33)	177
Appendix 1 – Members and Exhibitors of Berkeley’s First Art Colony (1906-11)	246
Appendix 2 – Exhibitors of the Carmel Arts and Crafts Club (1906-24)	254
Appendix 3 – Enrollment List: Chase Summer School of Art in Carmel (1914)	260
Appendix 4 – Exhibitors of the Carmel Art Association (1927-33)	262
Appendix 5 – List of Public Exhibitions and Lectures by Jennie V. Cannon	267
Appendix 6 – List and Explanation of Plates	290
Appendix 7 – Biographies of Carmel and Berkeley Artists	305
Index	688
Plates	